Preachers' Transport, Hospitality and Expenses

Will church stewards please make arrangements for transport for preachers who have no car. Where a preacher comes from another circuit will stewards please pay necessary expenses and claim them from the Circuit Treasurer where appropriate. Churches which themselves invite a preacher are responsible for expenses from their own funds. Local Preachers who wish to claim travel expenses may do so from the Circuit Treasurer.

When due to travel arrangements a preacher arrives early for an appointment, it would be appreciated if stewards would kindly provide hospitality until the time of the service. When a preacher is planned at a church for the first time, Church Stewards should ensure they know where the church is and how to get there, offering transport if needed
